BURGLARS ENTER XENIA'S TWO LEADING STORES

Burglars made a good haul in Xenia sometime Saturday night or early Sunday morning. Not a clue was left that the officers might trace the yeggs.

Hutchinson and Gibney sustained the greatest loss on stolen merchandise. The safe in the office had been blown but the robbers could not gain entrance to the inner compartment. As it was only about $8 was taken from a small cash box, this being money belonging to the employees fund.

Mr. Gibney stated Monday that at least 13 coats, 18 dresses, 10 dozen pair of women's silk hosiery, two traveling bags and one grip were taken.

Buglar insurance was carried on the safe but none on the stock of merchandise. The loss is placed at $1,000.

The safe of the Jobe Brothers store was also blown and the receipts taken. Only a small amount of cash was on hand most of the receipts being in checks and these were not taken. So far as known there was no merchandise taken from this store.

At each store the front door locks were taken off and entrance was made in this manner.

Seven years ago about $2,500 worth of silk goods was taken from the Hutchinson & Gibney store. No trace of that loss was ever found.

Yes! We Are Having March Weather

Some new weather records are being broken this winter for this section. Monday night two inches of snow fell within a fifteen minute period. It is hard for the older citizens to recall such a snow for this section.

Tuesday afternoon snow started to fall again and continued until about 7:30 that night. During this time about five inches fell. The mercury stood about twenty all day but by Wednesday morning it had dropped to six above. Thursday morning about 6:30 we had a major snow with much warm spring day with plenty of sunshine. Truly this is March.

Farmers are getting anxious for the ground to settle for spring plowing. So far very little ground has been broken, compared to former years.

JEAN MACDONALD COMING

Miss Jean MacDonald brings to the platform a wealth of wholesome fun and good-natured humor in her stories and dialect readings. Undoubtedly her Scotch-Irish ancestry is a great aid to her in her Scotch and Irish dialect stories. Her tales of the Southland, the West and the North are equally as effective and true to life.

Not all of her art as a story teller came naturally to Miss MacDonald. She improved her inherent talent by studying with Owen A. Smiley in Toronto, Edna Chaffee Noble in Detroit and at the London (Ont.) School of

JEAN MACDONALD

Elocution, where she graduated. There is not a monotonous moment during her program. Apparently she is a good-natured comedienne of broad smile and shrewd sense of humor.

In serious vein she indelibly impresses her audience with the simple eloquence of her plea for more love and faith in life daily walks.

Newspaper Polls Draw Much Comment

There seems to be much concern in dry circles over the newspaper poll being taken at present as a referendum on the modification of the Volstead act. The dries make light of it and the wets point to it as an indication that sentiment is swinging back and that Congress will be forced to provide for light wine and beer.

We cannot see how this poll is going to effect the present status of the Volstead law. A few days ago we read a comparative statement of how many of the larger cities have voted in the past. In the list were many smaller towns. These comparisons were made in states all over the country and in no way a solid section. It was surprising to find that the newspaper poll between the wets and the dries was about the same per centage as at former elections.

In some places dry leaders have refused to recognize the poll. We take a different view than that. If there is anything wrong and sentiment is on the change the dry leaders should at once take recognition of it. The other day one of Dayton's leading Methodist ministers announced that he proposed to cast his vote. He not only stands for the Volstead law but wants it made stronger.

The reason the public has shown much interest in the referendum is due to the fact that much of the enforcement is a huge joke. It is in the hands of politicians who are using it for political advantage. Almost everywhere where protection is given certain violators. The higher-ups making the most money are not heard of. In most cases it is the little fellows. Taxpayers are called upon to foot a bill running into the millions while officers, politicians and the head manipulators are becoming rich almost over night. Nothing in the country has ever produced the system of bribery as the present method of enforcement.

Col. Andrews is making a determined effort to close up the big gaps but he is hampered at most every turn by wet and dry politicians and office holders, who want to control the patronage connected with this enforcement movement. When Andrews first was appointed by President Coolidge he suggested that he have an advisory board of big men such as Gary, Ford, Eastman, and others who causes. A storm of protest broke out in Washington. Men like Curtis from dry Kansas and Watson, the Indiana Klansman, rebelled at the thought of appointments being made by others than political organizations.

Little of the rural vote is represented in the different polls taken. It was this vote that made the nation dry, or as dry as it is. The only reason it is not dryer is due to the force of enforcement and the manner and method of enforcement. With a more conscientious effort for enforcement public sentiment would be stronger for the Volstead law than it is. The policy today is to raid some poor unfortunate's home and then shout "See what we are doing!" and a truck load passes down the street unmolested because the owner may be paying tribute or have political influence. The public knows little or nothing of what is going on under cover as to prohibition enforcement.

Local merchants, with several hundred in the Miami Valley, have received invitations from the N. C. R. Dayton, to attend a meeting in their interest at the company school house on Thursday afternoon, March 25th at 3 o'clock.

President Frederick B. Patterson, has issued the invitations personally and will address the gathering. By means of motion pictures, pageants, playlets and a few short snappy talks merchants will be told how they can stimulate greater prosperity.

The seating capacity of the school house is 2,500. The mammoth pipe organ will be heard. There is no admission and no obligation required of any one attending the meeting.

AERIAL VIEW OF CEDARVILLE

The above is an airplane view of Cedarville, Ohio, taken from the "air" by a photographer for the Rike-Kumler Company of Dayton. This is what can be termed a good view regardless of the fact that you may have to put forth a little study to get the "lay of the land." Buildings about the center of town can be picked out easily. The Rike-Kumler Company is celebrating its 75th anniversary in connection with their spring sale. The Herald is obligated to the Rike-Kumler Co. for the above view of the town.

Receives Cut Over Eye On Street Car

Mr. Andrew Jackson suffered a cut over the left eye several days ago while in Columbus. He had entered a street car and was in the act of taking his seat when the motorman started the car with a jerk throwing him to the floor at the front vestibule. By the aid of a lady on the car and the conductor Mr. Jackson was taken to a nearby store for first aid. The conductor insisted on him going to the hospital but he refused and came home where Dr. Marsh took four stitches to close the wound.

County Commissioners Cut Two Salaries

The County Commissioners have passed a resolution reducing the salary of the superintendent of the Greene County Infirmary from $1200 per year to $840 and that of matron from $720 per year to $600. Supt. Cro was resigned and the vacancy will be filled from the list certified by the state civil service commission. As no examination is called for it is probable that the state board will make a provisional appointment.

Mr. Eavey has a maple sugar camp and for this spread produced a gallon of fine syrup. To give the syrup a fair test Auditor Wead provided the sausage and waffles and the service of Cleveland was necessary for the guests to partake of the hospitality of these two officials.

Why Commercialize Our Crimes?

Jacob Nisbet confesses he killed his wife. Why, then, should the Court allow him to plead "not guilty," when he has already confessed his guilt?

There is no one on earth who knows what he did better than himself. He killed her. Then he staged one of the most ingenious plays of innocence, deception and lies that has filled the pages of the public press in years. When he was trapped in his own words he confessed he had done it.

He pleaded "Not guilty," which in the light of his own confession is false, throwing the burden of proof on the State, with the chances in his favor of escaping justice, or at most a light sentence.

Why allow him to swear falsely, "to tell the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth," when he will tell only what will tend to secure his release, and nothing more. As a taxpayer, I honestly raise the question, "Why burden the tax laden citizen with all this expense, when he has already confessed his guilt." Is it to open a legal arena in which some brilliant lawyers shall have an opportunity to measure swords over the guilt of one who has already confessed his crime?

Will not Jacob Nisbet deepen the stain on his soul by following this devious course and refuge of lies of more deception and falsehood?

When Achem had dissembled in the army of Israel, causing the defeat of the army and the death of 36 men when he was caught in his sin, Moses said: "My son give, I pray thee glory to the Lord God of Israel, and make confession unto Him; and hide not from me." He confessed his sin and the evidences were dug up by which his confession was verified, and the prompt sentence was executed.

By his honest confession the stain of the sin of his soul was blotted out, and he was prepared to meet his God. The sentence matters not, for he was ready to die or to live.

But you say that was under the law, it is different now under the Gospel. Listen, Luke 10:22, "out of thine own mouth will I judge thee." The fact is, and will be in the judgment that every one will stand self accused. He has given the fact himself, together with those extracted from him by detectives which fixes his crime. Why deepen the stain on his soul by seeking a refuge in lies? and if he is successful he will be tempted to resort to the same refuge in a future time of trouble. Such a fixed habit may prove fatal in time to come. "For the Lord our God will not suffer us to escape His righteous judgement."

Again we ask: "Why indirectly commercialize crime by throwing the case into court creating heavy expense to the taxpayer, with the chances ten to one in favor of the criminal? Why poison the minds of our youth by the sickening and harrowing details of the crime in flaming headlines of the public press, and loudly hawked about our streets by the news boy who makes capital out of an incident that should be spoken with bated breath?" (R. J. K.)

ROSS TWP. BOYS WIN TOURNAMENT

Ross Township boys and Beaver Creek girls' teams won the basketball championships of Green county in the tournament at Antioch last Friday and Saturday.

Ross boys won from Bath in the final game, 31 to 26, and the Beaver Creek girls defeated Ross girls, 26 to 22, in the final.

Cedarville boys had no trouble in winning from Bowersville by a score of 19 to 6 but when they met Bath they lost 18 to 14 in a good game that was all but one sided.

The local girls lost to Beaver Creek by a score of 14 to 9.

The several scores for the boys' were:

Bath 24; Caesar Creek 13; Cedarville, 19; Bowersville, 6; Ross, 28; Beaver Creek 11. Yellow Springs, 12; Bellbrook, 9. Bath, 16; Cedarville, 14. Ross, 21; Yellow Springs, 20. Girls' games: Ross, 17; Bath 14. Beaver Creek, 14; Cedarville, 9.

Higher Phone Rates For Xenia

Xenia is one of about fifty cities and towns that will get the benefit of handsome increases in their rates for Bell telephone service. This information comes out of Columbus Wednesday. The Ohio Public Utilities Commission will grant the new rates. It is said that an effort will be made to resist the rates by the Xenia City Commission. Such a contest is useless under the Ohio law which was passed for the benefit of utility companies.

Tuesday a court decision was handed down that will permit the Logan Gas Company to make two increases in gas rates. Before the first increase asked for was granted, the company asked for a second, and under the court decision both rates have been granted. About seventy towns and cities will be forced to pay the double increase.

Such companies maintain an expensive legislative. These companies make it worth while for a man to run for state senator. Campaign money is provided and a governor's hands are tied when it comes to making new appointments on the Utility Board. Gov. Donahy has been elected twice on this issue. During the last session the Senate refused to confirm Donahy's appointments. The old members now hold over. This is what the utility companies want. Senator L. T. Marshall (?) from this county voted to reject the Donahy appointments.

The Utility lobby will see that the Senator is returned from this district.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Everyone was pleased to be given a half holiday Friday afternoon. We wouldn't care if there was a basketball tournament on. Our girls showed their appreciation of the half holiday by defeating Caesar Creek. However, the next day did not tell the same story and both boys' and girls' teams were defeated in the semi-finals. Though we did not bring back the cup, we are proud possessors of an unconquerable boys team throughout the season and shall display that cup with much pride.

Literary has included the following production. Lillian Ford gave an interesting biography of James Whitcomb Riley and recited his poem: "That Old Sweetheart of Mine."

Class Basketball Tournament is now in progress. The following games have been played:

Sophomores vs. Seniors in which the score for the boys was 12-2 in favor of the Seniors. In the girls' game the Senior won 4 to 0.

Tuesday the Freshmen boys won over the 7th and 8th grade 10-5. The Freshmen girls won over 7th and 8th grade girls 10-7.

Semi-finals are to be played Thursday. Finals Friday. Much class spirit has been manifest during the tournament.

The business men of the community have planned a banquet for the basketball squads to be given Friday evening at six o'clock in the gymnasium. The price for adults is one dollar a plate. Come and give your support to the business men in their attempt to show their appreciation of our athletic teams.

COLLEGE BOYS WIN

The College Basketball team had an easy victory over the Jamestown Cardinals last Wednesday night, winning by a score of 40 to 18.

MORGAN CALLS TURN

The League of Nations and the new popular World Court have been debated from every angle. There are honest supporters for each. Neither probably will do all that adherents claim but either plan probably would have a tendency to settle things abroad. The plan adopted after all is nothing if all nations will not agree to stand by the terms of agreement. At present this is not likely.

The League of Nations and the World Court were primarily designed as agencies to make for world peace and eliminate war in the future.

At present Congress has before it or will soon have, a bill that will require compulsory military training in all high schools and colleges. This bill we are informed will go farther than that. Every boy at the age of 18 must register with the army or suffer as a penalty imprisonment. This measure is a product of the war lords about Washington. Does this have the appearance of preparing for peace or for strife?

President Arthur E. Morgan, of Antioch College, is out in a statement severely condemning such a bill. He says if we are to have international peace we must build up the spirit of the peace. The expectation of war brings war.

It was only about a year ago that the federal child labor amendment was defeated, which if adopted would confer on Congress the right to regulate what your child, as a minor, by more people than that of any other should do and should not do. It also made it impossible for the youth to engage in productive labor for the parent, without violation of a law. Public sentiment smothered such a move and it certainly will the bill to require military training and make all boys 18 years of age subject to the whims and fancy of the military authorities in Washington.

Congress has endorsed the World Court and here comes a bill to foster the war spirit at home.

WHY WORRY?

If you don't worry, you're exceptional.

If you worry, as most folks do, and you're not trying to kill this pernicious habit, you're mighty foolish. For after a while, the thing you ought to kill will get a death grip on you.

We might all be infinitely more happy, healthy and prosperous if we would only take hold of ourselves and stop the silly, insane, useless, strengthening habit of harassing ourselves with worry.

You can't change the weather. You cannot do the impossible. You cannot become rich over night. You are only drawing nearer the grave by worry. Get rid of it, student. Kill it, business man. Junk it, madam. Crush it, everybody!

REWARD FOR GOODNESS

A cold caption in a recent issue of an Eastern newspaper—yet what a warm, throbbing heart-story back of it.

Rev. Dr. S. Parkes Cadman is pastor of the Central Congregational Church in Brooklyn. His fame is world-wide. His wisdom has spread to the four corners of the earth. And no doubt he has made and saved more money than the average minister of the gospel. By the aid of the radio his voice is heard each Sunday afternoon late what your child, as a minor, by more people than that of any other should do and should not do. It also made it impossible for the youth to engage in productive labor for the parent, without violation of a law. Public sentiment smothered such a move and it certainly will the bill to require military training and make all boys 18 years of age subject to the whims and fancy of the military authorities in Washington.

One thousand dollars for every year he has counseled and guided men, women, boys and girls of his congregation.

Whether Dr. Cadman needs the the war spirit at home.

NOTHING LIKE IT BEFORE

There were many historical events about a place called "Troy" which history records. It is unfortunate that a nearby county seat must record an event that goes down in criminal history of Ohio as almost a "perfect murder" as the detectives describe it. It was so cleverly done that for three weeks officers racked their brains to uncover what looked like a hopeless case.

One day we read special editions that a husband has confessed to this awful deed after the searching inquiry of a Cincinnati detective.

Two days later we read where this confession is laid aside and the husband being face to face with serious charges in court enters a plea of not guilty. It is marvelous the transformations that can take place as to procedure in our system of trying and handling of those who brake both the laws of God and man.

This "almost perfect case" is the strangest thing we have ever experienced, including the Pearl Bryan case and that was quite a number of years ago.

This case seemed to have the authorities in Miami county baffled. A citizens committee was named to employ outside detectives and it was wholly through these efforts that a "confession" was made. Very frequently an outside officer of the right calibre can do more for he is in no way influenced by local public sentiment.

It is seldom that such a crime can be committed and that relatives and friends of the victim do not express animosity towards the accused. Even the parents of the young wife have had a hard time being convinced that their son-in-law was guilty. So with the two brothers-in-law.

We read that when this confession was made even the officers could no longer control their feelings and expressed emotion.

The circumstances surrounding this case are very unusual. It is not to be wondered then that this confessed defendant still holds the sympathy of a large part of the public.

Though married but little more than a year this young couple moved in the best society and circulated about the favorite club in that county. At no time were their movements suspicious.

Why then should this act have been committed. The reason for such a deed is given by the husband as discontent.

Today we read that the case will not be brought to trial until probably next May. A question is what shall the charge be? Will the grand jury indict this young husband? What will the verdict be in case he is tried? An air of speculation seems to have surrounded this case.

A specialist who has studied this young man, not as a physician, but as a supposed representative of the press says he is a "paranoiac" and as a result of a heaving wife developed the famous "red blaze". The terms of "inferiority complex" and "psychoanalysis" indicates that a way is being paved to circumvent the law. There are many who believe that all the facts are not known. That it was unnatural for the husband to take all responsibility and hold his wife blameless.

GENTLEMEN — SEN. SCOFFLAW

Talking about candidates, prospective and certain, Editor Rice of the Xenia Herald, last week puts the Klan in this county down as a "negligible factor" in the coming primary.

This may be good news to some and disheartening to others. Editor Rice quotes one as saying the membership has dwindled to 300 in the county. Two years ago the organization made bold claims of ten times that number. In those days Senator Scofflaw took a half and half membership, or as the boys say, a rear door entrance and received an endorsement to boot. Another consideration was the Xenia post office for D. H. Barnes, but the hooded tribe was decorated with the double cross.

Just how the Senator and his brother, the chief "Persecutor" in the county, are to fare this year remains to be seen. Having bought the organization vote once on a Geiger-Jones promise to pay deal should be an easy task a second time. Some other member may like to be made happy on a promise. The Senator and the "Persecutor" can now be taken in on full terms and receive all the rights and benefits of the organization. The two-year old petitions can be pulled from the bottom drawer and dusted ready for action before next August.

Having the noble 300 in the Senator Scofflaw can next line up the newest organization in the county, the County Corn Distributors Association, of which he seems to be the legal advisor, who can get a trapped member out of the trench upon the deposit of the proper fee. That such an organization exists is a new question. That protection is not given every one is known. Non members are having a hard time to hold business and play safe. Union members must be prosperous and business good for Xenia police court had 14 drunks last Monday morning.

Conditions in the county are splendid, about as dry as was the Dealer hotel celebration last April given in honor of Senator Scofflaw by the illuminating water controlling the upper chamber.

The Senator renders quick service. A bootlegger is convicted in the afternoon. Eats three county meals and is home for evening dinner and ready for business the next morning. When better government is made in Greene county, Senator Scofflaw will make it. This may be news to the Klan followers and the Senator's supporters but the Senator is not telling his supporters everything.

CORN MONEY

We hear a great deal about corn today. Corn for all kinds of feed for livestock and corn for the fritters, the pone and mush. Corn is being used to make corn sugar, an article said to be superior to beet sugar. A wider field for its use seems to be open liquor.

But it is left to an Illinois town to make corn a substitute for the dollar or a fraction as the case may be. Carmi recently celebrated with a "corn week". Corn was used for money. It was accepted by the grocer, the baker and the garage as cash. Even the village newspaper took its share as payment on subscription. After the farmer did his usual shopping and left corn in payment he took the family to the picture show where twenty-five cars admitted adults and fifteen cars for children.

At the present time corn money is truly representative of our prosperity. It used to be said that the wheat dollar ruled our finances. Not so today.

Wind God a Snake

In ancient Mexico the wind deity was represented by some form of a snake, a curious fact which archeologists have not been able to understand. The snake usually took a fantastic shape, having feathers, others having two forelegs thrown in for good measure and a curious snout like a trumpet. The Mexican Indian name for the wind god was "Quetzalcoatl".

C.O.D. is Cod

Little Sara happened over to her married sister's home just after the coal man had delivered some coal. She noticed the coal bill on the table and these letters at the bottom: C.O.D., and said: "Well, the same man must have delivered your coal that delivered ours, because his name was Cod, too."—Indianapolis News.

Immorality Condemned

"The man who writes an immoral but beautiful book may be tracked into slavery by a procession of test souls from every generation, everyone to be a witness against him at the judgment, to show to him and to the universe the unspeakable nature of his iniquity."—G. K. Chesterton.

Fish's Sense of Smell

To the scientist who has had a sense of smell, carp were blindfolded at the Zoological Institute at the University of Munich, in Germany. It was found that the fish refused to eat bits of meat boiled to extract every trace of odor, but when a similar piece of meat was sweetened the carp snapped it up greedily.

Man and His Creator

He felt to work, whistling softly, and was swallowed up in the keen, clear joy of creation, which does not come to man too often, but he should consider himself the child of his God, and so refuse to die at the appointed time.—Kipling.

Stubborn Coughs Quickly Stopped This New Way

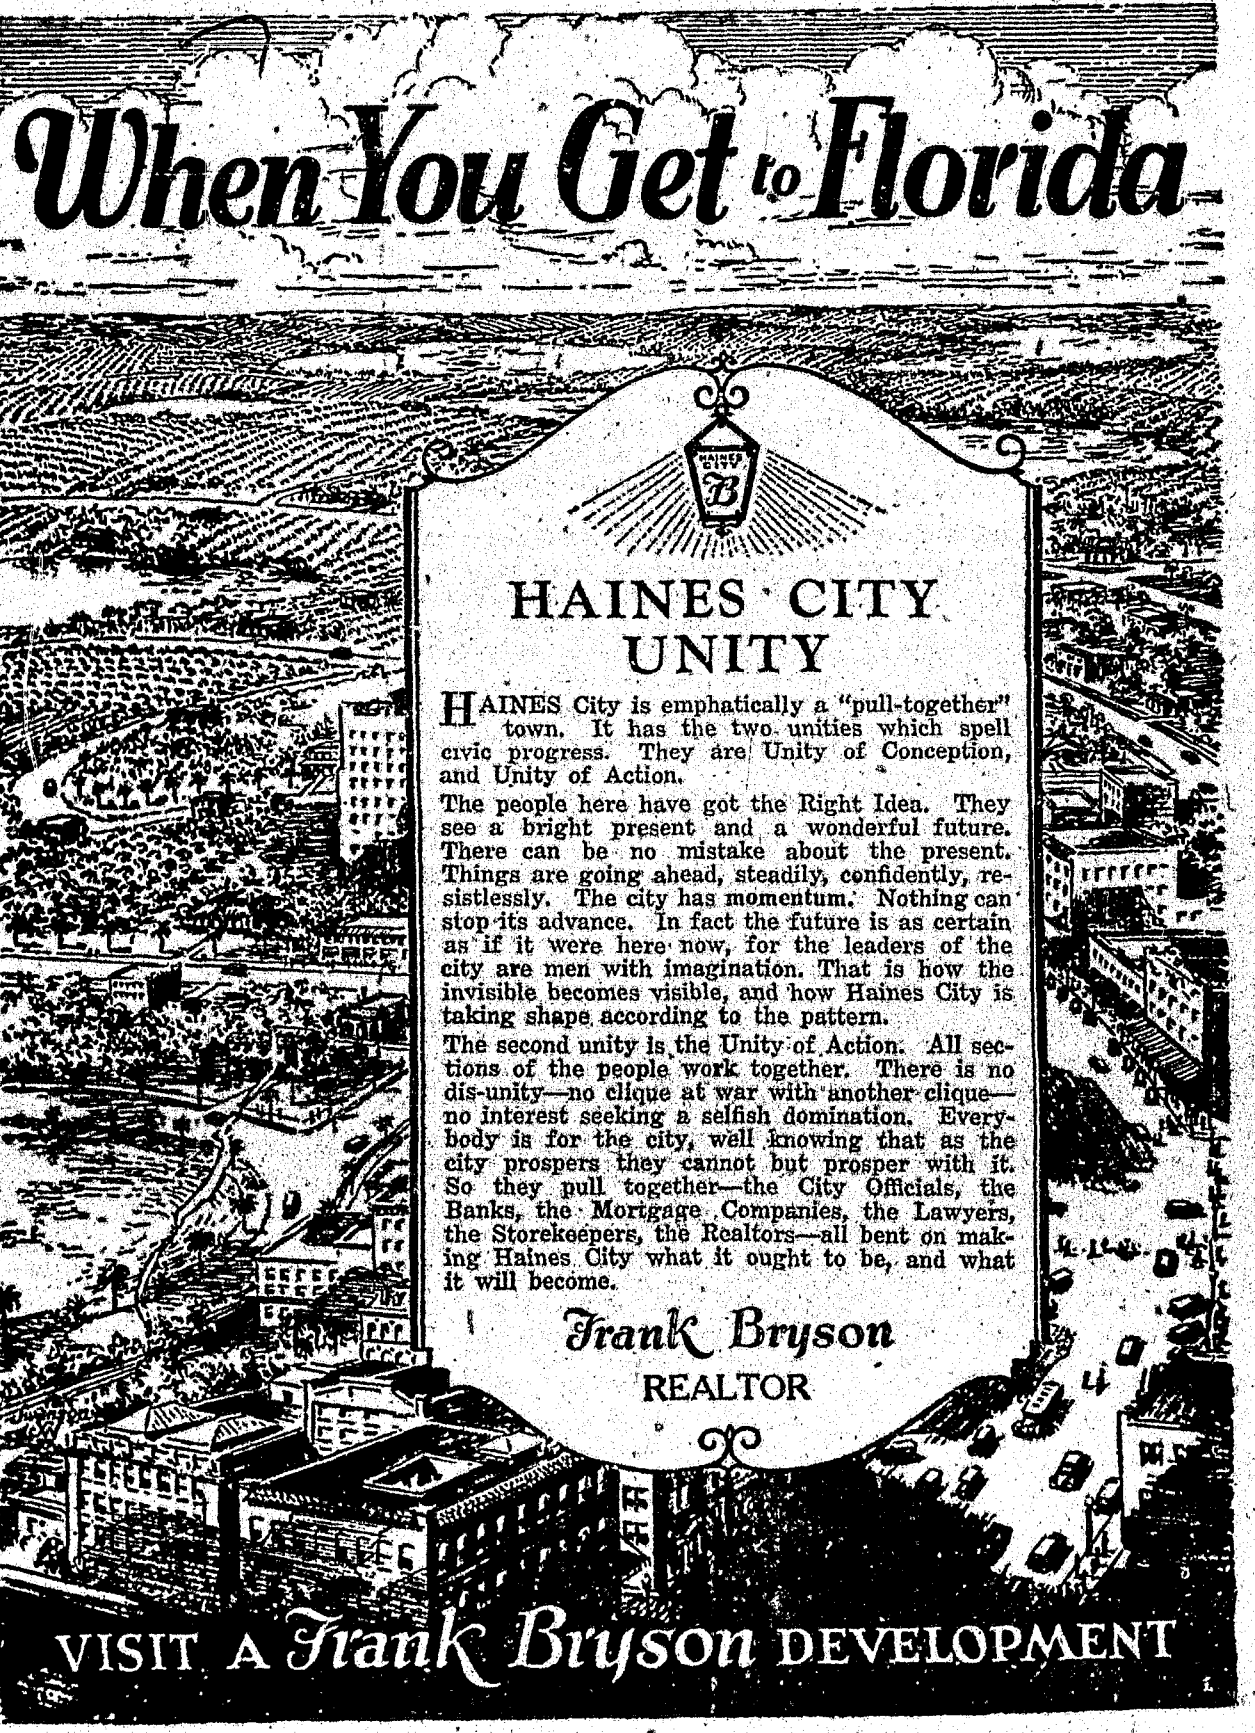

It is often surprising how the most persistent, hard to stop cough that not only robs you of strength and sleep, but often leads to more serious trouble, can be quickly stopped by a single but wonderfully effective treatment.

This treatment is based on the prescription known as Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs. You take just one teaspoonful at bed time and hold it in your throat for 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing it. The prescription has a double action. It not only soothes and heals soreness and irritation, but it quickly removes the phlegm and congestion which are the real cause of night coughing. So with the cause removed, coughing stops quickly, your sleep undisturbed, and the entire cough condition soon disappears.

Dr. King's New Discovery is for coughs, chest colds, sore throat, hoarseness, bronchitis, spasmodic croup, etc. Fine for children as well as grown-ups—no harmful drugs. Economical, too, as the dose is only one teaspoonful. At all good druggists. Ask for

HAINES CITY UNITY

HAINES CITY is emphatically a "pull-together" town. It has the two unities which spell civic progress. They are Unity of Conception, and Unity of Action.

The people here have got the Right Idea. They see a bright present and a wonderful future. There can be no mistake about the present. Things are going ahead, steadily, confidently, resolutely. The city has momentum. Nothing can stop its advance. In fact the future is as certain as if it were here now, for the leaders of the city are men with imagination. That is how the invisible becomes visible, and how Haines City is taking shape according to the pattern.

The second unity is the Unity of Action. All sections of the people work together. There is no disunity—no clique at war with another clique—no interest seeking a selfish domination. Everybody is for the city, well knowing that as the city prospers they cannot but prosper with it. So they pull together—the City Officials, the Banks, the Mortgage Companies, the Lawyers, the Storekeepers, the Realtors—all bent on making Haines City what it ought to be, and what it will become.

The Madison County Commissioners have approved the surveyor's estimate for the improvement of the Old Xenia road south of London at a cost of $18,658.35, based on grading, draining, constructing culverts and placing stone on the road. The stone will be six inches thick and spread ten feet wide. Although most of the Madison County secondary roads have been of gravel the commissioners have turned to stone.

Added to Spain's Riches

The Spaniards discovered gold in South America in 1493, from which time until 1731 they carried from South America 6,000 millions of "pieces of eight" in registered gold and silver, exclusive of what was unregistered. One piece of gold weighing 60 pounds troy, was found near La Paz, a town in Peru, in 1730.

Lesson for March 21

JESUS DIES AND ARISES FROM THE DEAD

LESSON TEXT—John. 19:17-30; 20:1-13.

GOLDEN TEXT—Therefore doth the Father love me, because I lay down my life that I may take it again.—John 10:17.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Dies and Rises From the Dead.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus Dies and Rises From the Dead.

IC—Jesus Dies and Rises From the Dead.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Christ Dying for Our Sins and Rising Again for Our Justification.

1. Jesus Crucified (vv. 17-30).

1. The place (v. 17).
It was on a hill called in Latin Calvary, in Hebrew Golgotha, which in shape resembled a skull.
2. His companions.
Two malefactors (v. 18, cf. Luke 23:32).

This shows how completely Jesus was identified with sinners.

3. The inscription over Him (vv. 19, 20).

It was customary to place an inscription over the cross stating the crime for which the victim suffered.

4. Gambling for the garments of Jesus (vv. 23, 24).

This is an exhibition of how men's hearts may be so callous as to plan and set for present gain under the shadow of the cross of Christ.

5. Utterances from the cross (vv. 25-30).

(1) "Behold thy son"—"Behold thy mother" (vv. 25, 26).
In this crucifixion hour He forgot His own bitter anguish and interested Himself in those He loved. Though He was leaving the earth and its struggles, He made provision for the dear ones left behind.

(2) "I thirst" (v. 28).
As the sinner's representative, He suffered not only untold agony of mind, but of body as well.

(3) "It is finished" (v. 30).
While no one can fathom the depth of meaning in these words, they do no doubt indicate (a) that the cruel and indignities heaped upon Him were at an end.
6. His death (v. 30).
His death was voluntary. With full consciousness that all things which He had come to do had now been accomplished, He dismissed His spirit.

11. The Resurrection of Jesus (20:1-13).

1. The empty tomb (vv. 1-10).
(1) The testimony of Mary Magdalene (vv. 1, 2).
This woman, out of whom Jesus had driven seven demons (Mark 16:7; Luke 8:2-3), announced the fact of the empty tomb to Peter and John.

(2) Personal investigation by Peter and John (vv. 3-10).
The news of the empty tomb which Mary brought with breathless haste to Peter and John, led Peter that they both ran to investigate.

(3) The manifestations of the risen Lord (vv. 11-20).
(1) To Mary Magdalene (vv. 11-13).
(a) Mary weeping at the empty tomb (v. 11).
Peter and John went home, but Mary could not—she stood weeping. She should have been rejoicing that the grave was empty, for the empty tomb was an eloquent proof of His messianicship and deity.

(b) Mary questioned by the angels (vv. 12, 13).
She viewed through her tears angels at the tomb, who inquired the cause of her sorrow.

(c) Jesus reveals Himself to Mary (vv. 12, 13).
She first saw angels, and then her eyes lighted upon the Lord. She did not recognize Him in His resurrection body but His voice was familiar to her. As soon as her name was called she recognized Him and worshiped at His feet.

(d) Jesus forbids her to touch Him (v. 17).
This shows that she was now coming into a new relationship with Him. Besides, there was no one for such familiarity while the disciples were in darkness. "Go tell my brethren," was the message for her to carry.

(e) Mary's testimony (v. 18).
(2) To the disciples (vv. 19-20).
(a) When Thomas was absent (vv. 19-23).
He came to them with the message of peace (v. 19), showed His hands and side (v. 20), commissioned them (v. 21) and bestowed upon them the Holy Spirit (v. 22).
(b) When Thomas was present (vv. 24-29).
Victory over Thomas' skepticism was realized by the sight and touch of the Lord.
